The musical score consists of ten staves of music. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The music is written in a rhythmic style with eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. Below each staff is a line of rhythmic notation consisting of 'R' and 'L' characters, representing right and left foot patterns. Dynamic markings such as f, ff, mf, and p are placed below the staves. There are also accents (>) above many notes. The score is divided into measures by vertical bar lines.
